- Speciff Miller has received a letter from a gentleman in Illinois wanting to know all about mineral prospects, the chances to work mines, etc., la Miller county. We hope to wake up capitalists and labor to come to our county; that's what the Bannes is doing.

-Every young lady and gentleman should have a trade, suitable to their natural strength and ability; they know not in the course of for what present or disappointments may befall them; a good trade cannot be taken from them under any circumstances. A trade s equal lo que thousand dollars and some simes ten thousand.

-Bro's Dorsey and Phillips with sister Dirsey and her sweet little Dolla, gave the BANNER office calls this week. It is really comforting and encouraging to have the blessed divines and angels of the Lord call and consols the wearry worn printer, on his surney along the rough rugged road in this life. God will bless the rightious.

-James B. Brown was taken sick near this place last week, en route to Boliyar, Polk county, and was left alone at the Planters House, where he is receiving the kind hosp;talities of the hostess, and medical attention by Dr. Bradlyford. Mr. Brown is here without an acquaintance and without money, but says he has two brothers living near Bolvar, who has been written to by the doctor. Hopes are entertained of his recovery.

-Last Saturday W H. Waddie swore out a warrant before Esq. Ums ead against a Mr. Lang and Kirk two gentlemen traveling on business, for crossing the river in his ferry coat the night previous; alleging in his affida wit that it was malicious on part of detend-sors. Dr. Bradlyford, deputy constable avrested the parties and took them before the Justice for trial, a jury was empaneled to enquire into the cause of complaint, it appeared from the testimony that detendants bortly after dusk, last griday eye, called for the ferry boat, two persons came and crossed them, they paid their ferriage and something extra on account of the lateness in the day; not knowing but the men managing the boat were the regular terrymen. The jury retired in a few moments returned with their verdict "not guilty." The young mon had no council, sacy bore the appearance of being gentlemen of honor and respectability; after the trial was over, they passed many compliments on our citizens and officers as being of the best people they ever met up With in their travels. The cost assessed against the prosecuting witness amounted to near ten dollars.

Preaching.

Last Saturday evening Eld. G. W. Phillips, commenced a cecies of sermons; preaching at noon on Lord's day and each evening since; we attended each service. He is one of those olosa practical reasoners; bandles his subjects with that plain practical manner that any and all can see the point if they desire. Bro. Dorsey assisted in the exercises and will continue the meeting each evening for several days to come. Now as the Weather is fine. moonlight exenings, let every body turn out; old and young, to sip of the pure water Cowing from the fountsin of life everlasting. Below we give Elder Phillips' texts, in order that our readers may take the bible, read and reflect for themselves. Saturday night April 1st text, first section of the 4th chapter of Matt. Subject, Temptation of the Savier On this discourse Bro. Phillips impressed the necessity of following him (Christ), for dedescance from temptation.

2nd Text, Reb. 8; 10, subject, A parallel between true christianity and anti-christianity. Showing all christianity to consist in and governed by the law written in the mind and impressed upon the heart.

3rd Text, 1 Tim. 3: 15, 16. subject, The great secret of our success is Godliness.

4th Text, Acts 10: 89-35, subject, conver sion of Cornelius. Showing his calvation to depend on the word which he heard delivered, and obeyed.

Erecze Out.

The word "freeze out" has a peculiar signiffic age at the present day, used, to apply to many thing; here is a game of cards called "freez: ou."-cometimes a young lady steal and Iron at bottom prices.

not wishing the attention of some smitten lover will throw the door open of cool days and leave him alone to "freeze out" -- again when a company of youngsters are together and one commences relating some long yarn or story of past happening, the crowd will pretend to tall in the arms of morphias and commence enoring as though they were all seleep, when the relator finds no one but himself a listener and terminates his windy yarn-on the 2nd Sabbath of April some twenty youngsters were listeners of J. H. D. Tomson's harangue of a sermon, on politics religion and infidelity at the Court House; after the crowd had been boored for two hours, about twenty of the young men appeared in the attitude of sleeping to "freeze ou." the speaker-Slimy Tomson is endeavouring to make the impression that the BANNER alluded to ladies in the remark "sleeping beauties"-not at all-it was the twenty youngsters who were trying to "freeze ont" the bypograte in the pulpit.
